The City Amusements. AT THE THEATRE THE drama of Trodden Down will be given for the last time this evening. Mrs. Watkins will have a benefit to-morrow. AT THE ARCH Miss Price's benefit is announced for this evening, when Miss Price will personate "Camille" for the first time. Miss Price is a careful and studious actress, whose steady improvement in all the higher qualities of her art is an evidence of her ambition and her desire to receive the approbation of the public. We hope that her talents will receive the appropriate recognition of a crowded house this evening. The performance will conclude with The Toldie. To-morrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard will have a benefit, and on Saturday Mr. Mackay will present his claims to the favorable consideration of the play-going public. AT THE OPERA HOUSE this evening Mr. D. S. Vernon, the tenor, and Hughy Dougherty, the eccentric comedian, will both appear. AT THE ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE Sloo Fly, Dooz, Boddie Mc, and other songs will be presented this evening, including the burlesque of The Red Light. SIMON BLITZ and his son will give a magical exhibition at the Assembly Building this evening. THE PHOENIX.—This evening this fine series of paintings, in illustration of "The Pilgrim's Progress," will be exhibited at Concert Hall by Professor Bain. THE SENEZ-HASLER ORCHESTRA will give a matinee at Concert Hall this evening.
